Goal # 1: The Community Development Authority is continually, as an ongoing objective, working To provide quality living for its residents. Capital Funds are utilized to improve the units and public spaces.
Goal # 2: Services and programs are a part of who we are. They also minimize vacancies. We have explored the continuum of care which is affordable but have not been able to make the project financially feasible. We continue to make this a goal for the next five years.

Goal # 3: The CDA strives to maintain high performer status. Our physical plant, resident satisfaction, financial viability and management are goals we work towards on a daily basis.

Goal # 4: We are always working towards financial stability. HUD needs to be aware that this is becoming harder with increased costs, such as utilities, insurance costs (buildings, liability, health and etc.), user fees and etc. Income does not go up but costs do.

Goal # 5: Residents continue to be a large voice in how we operate.

Goal # 6: We have very few minorities in the city. However, our Mainstream Program continues to serve persons who disadvantaged because of some type of handicap.
